Families will be amazed by the details that go into making this 3D animated blockbuster movie.

The new attraction offers guests a up-close look at Apocalypseburg and movie fans can stand in the same place as characters from the film and imagine being in the action. LEGOLAND Model Makers have been reconstructing a piece of the set from the new movie for five months, working with Warner Bros. Consumer Products and set designers to be sure the details are as accurate as possible. Guests can find out more at www.legoland.co.uk/apocalypseburg

The Haunted House Monster Party

Guests visiting the Resort in April can be amongst the first to enjoy the brand new The Haunted House Monster Party ride when it opens on 13 April 2019. Little monsters will be invited to join the frightfully friendly Lord Vampyre for a monstrous party at his spooky new haunted home, celebrating his arrival in the LEGOLAND neighbourhood. Young party guests will be greeted by joke-telling LEGO brick gargoyles and talking statues, LEGO bunting, banners and balloons.

Inside Vampyre’s Haunted House, families will take their seats on the ride at a banquet table in a magnificent hall, brimming with ghastly monster party food, cauldrons, potion bottles and goblets. Once sitting comfortably, Vampyre will reveal his magical party trick – bringing the banquet hall swinging to life and turning the room upside down before his party goer’s very eyes.
